A conflict is defined as three exams in a calendar day or two exams at the same time.

Conflict periods are scheduled at the stated times in the above exam schedule.

To resolve a conflict in which a student has two examinations scheduled for the same period, the instructor of the lower numbered course shall reschedule the exam to another time mutually agreed on by the instructor and the student, or to one of the Conflict Periods.

To resolve a conflict in which a student has three examinations scheduled in one calendar day, the examination scheduled for the middle period may be rescheduled to another time mutually agreed on by the instructor and the student, or to a Conflict Period on another day. It is incumbent upon the student to petition their professor no later than the last week of classes so that an alternative
